Art of the Line -- New Exhibition

February 20 - September 1, 2013

The Mastery Behind Peanuts

(Santa Rosa, CA) During a Good Housekeeping interview novelist Laurie Colwin asked Charles Schulz the magic question, "What sort of things do you always hope people ask you in an interview?" Schulz answered quickly and eagerly, "I always hope they will ask more about the drawing ..."

The new exhibition Art of the Line, on display February 20 through September 1, 2013, at the Charles M. Schulz Museum and Research Center, takes you behind the scenes of the making of one of the world's most beloved comic strips. Learn more about Schulz's process in his own voice as he describes honing his artistic skill and the tools he used in this exhibition of original comic strips and photographs.

Schulz took great pride in producing an aesthetically pleasing and well-designed comic strip. He knew exactly what he was looking for in the design of a Peanuts comic strip but found the explanation of the process elusive. "It's as difficult as explaining what a poem is about," he said.
