New Exhibition at the Charles M. Schulz Museum
My Favorite Peanuts: Reflections of Family and Friends
March 17, 2018 through September 16, 2018

(Santa Rosa, CA) Charles M. Schulz drew from his everyday life experience to create the universally relevant and hilarious antics seen in the Peanuts comic strip. Many beloved punchlines, characters, and jokes were in fact inspired by those closest to the artist himself; his wife, Jean Schulz, their children, and friends. In the Schulz Museum's newest exhibition, My Favorite Peanuts: Reflections of Family and Friends on view March 17, 2018 through September 16, 2018, we invite you to learn not only how those close to Schulz relate to their favorite comic strips and Peanuts stories, but also how the iconic stories we know and love relate so closely to their very own lives.

“This exhibition gives me the opportunity to share my thoughts and insights with people that visit the Museum, and tell some of the stories behind them.” -Jean Schulz

From Sally and Linus to Snoopy’s Happy Dance, join us for this exhibition of original comic strips, photographs, and memories shared; experience the heartfelt moments behind Peanuts in the funny pages. During your visit, share with us your favorite Peanuts! You may even discover a new favorite while you’re here!
