CURRENT AND UPCOMING EXHIBITIONS

Peace, Love, and Woodstock (through March 8, 2020)

Named for the 1969 music festival—which celebrates its 50th anniversary this year—Woodstock may be the smallest Peanuts character, but he has a huge presence. Take a trip through the life of Woodstock and see why this little bird has captured hearts and inspired laughs with his eccentric ways. Sponsored by Image 360, Recology, and the Krush 95.9 FM.

Peanuts Goes to Camp (through November 18, 2019)

Charles Schulz explored the ups and downs of summer camp in Peanuts with a fidelity that rings true to many a happy camper. In this exhibition of original comic strips, relive nights serenaded by crickets and days full of sun-drenched memories with the Peanuts Gang.

Abracadabra! Magic in Peanuts (through January 19, 2020)

Charles Schulz loved sleight of hand and stage magic of all kinds. Learn how the cartoonist brought magic into the panels of Peanuts. See original comic strip art, animation cels, and a selection of the magic items that belonged to Schulz—no hocus pocus required.

Hidden Treasures: Unseen Originals from the Collection (November 20, 2019–May 18, 2020)

With nearly 8,000 original Peanuts comic strips in the Schulz Museum’s collection, there are many treasures that have yet to be displayed. Some are recently acquired strips and others haven’t fit into an exhibition theme—until now. In this exhibition, peek into the pillars of Peanuts through never-before-exhibited original comic art by Charles M. Schulz.
