SANTA ROSA, Calif. January 6, 2020—A full season of programs and exhibitions kick off the new year at the Charles M. Schulz Museum and Research Center. From the return of the First Friday Film Series to the opening of Lucy! Fussbudget to Feminist, find the details listed below. All programs are included with museum admission unless otherwise stated. Events and details subject to change; check schulzmuseum.org for updates.

JANUARY

Mondays, January 6, 13, 20, and 27, 10:00 am–Noon
Museum Mondays for Little Ones

Designed for children ages 1–5 and their caregivers, Museum Mondays features stories, crafts, and activities inspired by changing themes. Offered every Monday through February. $5 per child / free for up to 2 adults per child before 11:00 am. Regular museum admission applies after 11:00 am.

Saturday, January 11, 1:00–3:00 pm

Second Saturday Cartoonist

Learn to draw with writer, animator, and storyboard artist Matthew Luhn, whose story and animation credits include Toy Story (1, 2, and 3), Monsters Inc., Finding Nemo, Cars, Ratatouille, and Up. Luhn has created a series of "how to draw" books and art programs for kids of all ages.

Monday, January 20, 1:00 pm

A Boy Named Charlie Brown (1 hr., 26 min.)

Watch the first-ever feature-length Peanuts film, A Boy Named Charlie Brown (1969), on the big screen in the Museum's Theater! Against all odds, Charlie Brown wins the class and school spelling bee. Next he's on to the televised national spelling bee. With Snoopy and Linus present for moral support, can Charlie Brown spell his way to a national championship?

CURRENT AND UPCOMING EXHIBITIONS

Peace, Love, and Woodstock (through March 8, 2020)

Named for the 1969 music festival, Woodstock may be the smallest Peanuts character, but he has a huge presence. Take a trip through the life of Woodstock and see why this little bird has captured hearts and inspired laughs with his eccentric ways. Sponsored by Image 360 and Recology.

Hidden Treasures: Unseen Originals from the Collection (through May 25, 2020)

With nearly 8,000 original Peanuts comic strips in the Schulz Museum's collection, there are many treasures that have yet to be displayed. Some are strips that have been recently acquired and others haven't fit into an exhibition theme—until now. In this exhibition, peek into the pillars of Peanuts through never-before-exhibited original comic art by Charles M. Schulz.

Greetings, Charlie Brown! An Early Look at Peanuts and Hallmark (January 23–July 12, 2020)

In the early 1960s, the Peanuts Gang leapt off the comics page and into households, due in large part to Arnold Shapiro, a devoted Peanuts fan and editor at Hallmark Cards who fostered the iconic partnership between the two global brands. Discover the early connection between Peanuts and Hallmark through a display of original prototype sketches by Schulz, product mock-ups, and early Hallmark products.

Lucy! Fussbudget to Feminist (March 15, 2020–March 7, 2021)

In honor of the Women's Suffrage Centennial in 2020, the Schulz Museum celebrates the leading lady of Peanuts, Lucy Van Pelt. Whether she's sharing sage advice from her psychiatric booth, contemplating against Schroeder's piano, or running from dog lips, Lucy can be counted as crabby or bossy, but also confident, compassionate, and ready to tackle anything. See the evolution of this female icon through original Peanuts artwork, never-before-seen material from the archives, and much more. Plus, visitors will have a chance to dish their own advice straight from Lucy's psychiatric booth. Sponsored by the Press Democrat and the North Bay Business Journal.
